It was an honor to have Mr. Sathish Kumar as a key speaker at the Entrepreneurship Skill Development Program for Science Graduates - Build your Brands in Business held on 4th March 2025 at Voorhees College, Vellore. Mr. Kumar's session was nothing short of inspiring and enlightening.

His deep understanding of entrepreneurship, paired with his experience as a management consultant, brought invaluable insights to the students. His ability to break down complex business concepts into actionable steps made it easy for the participants to grasp key entrepreneurial skills and strategies.

What stood out the most was his motivating approach. He encouraged the students to embrace challenges, think outside the box, and transform their ideas into tangible ventures. His engaging storytelling, real-world examples, and practical advice instilled a sense of confidence and purpose in every participant.
